This week, it's all about these five products and one must-have book.

VitaFusion Gorgeous Hair, Skin & Nails ($14) This is my new favorite way to get my biotin in: Gummy candy brings the whole experience up a notch.

Elemis Pro Collagen Hydra-Gel Eye Masks ($85) I like to don these while putting on my eye makeup to depuff and hydrate.

Goop By Juice Beauty Exfoliating Instant Facial ($125) Gwyneth herself is as polarizing as cilantro, but her skin care collaboration with Juice Beauty is patently NOT. This skin slougher tackles dead skin cells with care, while Vitamin B5 leaves smoother, fresh skin in its wake.

Eclair Naturals Fizzy Bath Cupcake ($5) Gluten-free, vegan and infused with Vitamin E, this treat pampers while you soak.

The Career Code by Hillary Kerr and Katherine Power ($12.75) The Who What Wear founders share the secrets of their success.

Pur Cosmetics Glow Together Gradient Matte Shimmer Bronzer ($34) This giant shimmer free bronzer looks like the landscape of Tatooine, but yields a believable glow, even if you're the fairest of them all.
